

Jon Bon Jovi, You Had Me From Hello

At the mirror you fix your hair.
and put your make up on....
you're insecure about what clothes to wear
I can't see nothing wrong....
To me you look so beautiful when you can't make up your mind.
It's half past eight it's getting late...
It's ok! take your time....
Standing here my hands in my pockets like I have a thousand times
Thinking back it took one breath, One word to change my life....
The first time I saw you, it felt like coming home
If I never told you I just wan't you to know... You had me from hello
When we walk in to a crowded room
It's like we're all alone....
Everybody tries to kidnap your attention you just smile
and steal the show..
You come to me and take my hand
we start dancing slow....
you put your lips up to my ear
and whisper way down low...
From the first time I saw you It felt like coming home...
If I never told you I just wan't you to know... You had me from hello..
And when you're laying down beside me....
I fell your heartbeat to remind me....
The first time I saw you, it felt like coming home
If I never told you I just wan't you to know... You had me from hello
oh, from hello
