

Jon McLaughlin, Another Layer

I heard it on the radio
Let it be so I let go
To see if it...
Made a difference
I try to walk a different pace
Show the world the other face
I hide away
Because today...
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
I am not the same
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
If I change

Nothing's ever what it seems
You think you've got it figured out
Then find yourself another layer

And life can bring you to your knees
I'll lift you till you're fine
Do you wanna live in now or later

The label we refuse to find
Is wasted on the color blind
It fades away
Lost in the gray
And Oh!
And I so sit alone
Pretending that there's no one home
Behind the door
What are we hiding for?
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
We are all the same
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh

If we...
If we change

Oh!

Nothing's ever what it seems
You think you've got it figured out
Then find yourself another layer

And life can bring you to your knees
I'll lift you till you're fine
Do you wanna live in now or later

We may not get a second chance
It's not all out of my hands
Now is not gonna catch me by...

Nothing's ever what it seems
You think you've got it figured out
Then find yourself another layer

And life can bring you to your knees
I'll lift you till you're fine
Do you wanna live in now or later

Nothing's ever what it seems
You think you've got it figured out
Then find yourself another layer

And life can bring you to
Bring you to your knees
I'll lift you till you're fine
Do you wanna live in now or later
