

Jon Secada, Want You, Miss You, Love You

Want You, Miss You, Love You I do
Never want to be this far from you again
I long to touch you and I need to hold you
Beautiful and priceless I wish, I wish it was Though I know I'll be back, baby why am I here now?

Want You Miss You, Love You I do
Blinded and foolish as I am
I promise never to forget what I'm going through
I promise never to forget how much
I Want You, Miss You, Love You

When I find myself in your arms again
I'll remember when and I will never let go,
No I will never let go

Want You, Miss You, Love You I do
Hopelessly longing for the touch of your hand
And baby here I am, a thing that moves
Baby you'll never know how much
I Want You, Miss You, Love You
Want You, Miss You, Love You
