

Jonah 33, Beautiful

Give me just a second so I can catch my breath
As I fall into the arms of love
My heart is overwhelmed
And I can barely speak
As I'm face to face with my humanity
See I've spent my share of time
Pretending that I knew all of the answers
Answers without truth
Just the blind leading the blind away from you
[CHORUS:]
But I, I think you're still beautiful
Enough to reach the unreachable
And I, don't need to be tainted
'Cause I still believe
If a man takes what he's gained and turns it into loss
Where does he stand?
And if the world hates what is good
Why do we use the world to lend a hand?
[CHORUS]
You are still beautiful
Why do we use a world that has tasted death
To bringing a dying world back to life?
Why are we so convinced that we will offend
To show the purity of Christ?
[CHORUS]
You are still beautiful
You are still beautiful
