

Jonas Brothers, Eternity

Looking at a picture
Of you in my hands
Wonder if I'm ever gonna see you again
Without you, I don't know how my life would be
But I believe

It's not goodbye
Cause I will remember you
And I will see you again
When I rise
Cause I know and I believe
I will see you in eternity

So close, but so far
But here in my heart, you're here with me
You did not leave
You just went to live in eternity
Without you, I don't know how my life would be
But I believe

It's not goodbye
Cause I will remember you
And I will see you again
When I rise
Cause I know and I believe
I will see you in eternity

We will live in the light of the sun again
Dancing in the river of life and
Knowing you'll never leave
Forever by my side, I'll never have to say

Goodbye
Cause I will remember you
And I will see you again
When I rise
Cause I know and I believe
I will see you in eternity

Goodbye
Cause I will remember you
And I will see you again
When I rise
Cause I know and I believe
I will see you in eternity
