

Jonas Brothers, Move On

Wouldn't it be nice
If I had some tissues
Wipe away the tears
That's right, you've got issues
Why do you keep asking questions
When I don't care

And how many times
Will it take you
To figure out how much
I hate you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

Cause you love me
And I hate you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

Wouldn't it be nice
If you stopped whining
And telling all your friends
That I keep lying
You can trust me when I tell you
We're through (we're through)

And how many times
Will it take you
To do the math
Me minus you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

Cause you love me
And I hate you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

How many feelings will you harbor
Get over it, your friends are so much hotter
Ohhh yeah ee

I'm right, you're wrong
Move on
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

Cause you love me
And I hate you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on

Cause you love me
And I hate you
I'm right, you're wrong
Move on
