Jonatha Brooke, Love Song

If I were blind would it all come down to this?
WOuld you still love me?
If I were wrong
would it still be the same fade to black
as I reach for you falling
falling
away I am falling
falling
from love again
If there were time
to say it you think I know now
although it's indestinct if there were days
and nights alone
again, would you still reach for me?
falling
falling
away
I am falling
falling
away
from love again
If you were blind
It would all come down to this I would still love you
If you were wrong
It would still be the same
Fade to black
Cause I am falling
Falling
In love again
I am falling
fallng
