

Jonezetta, Communicate

Isabelle, Isabelle did you take me out of your mind?
I've been driving all night just to see if you're alive
If we fell, could you tell?
I think I want to know his name.
It's a long way home. Will it ever feel the same?

To Communicate

Isabelle, Isabelle who's it going to be at your bedside?
Fall asleep to the life you'll live until you die
Your silence setting down on me is going to kill what's still alive
It's a long way home. Will it ever feel the same?

To Communicate

Isabelle, Isabelle
It's a long way home

I'm like the blue skies, blue skies
Slowly moving on
There's nothing but daylight, daylight, daylight
But you can't even see the sun

For what it's worth
You're all I know
We always try

To Communicate

Isabelle, Isabelle It's a long way home!

Isabelle, Isabelle
Did you take me out of your mind?
