

Jonezetta, The City We Live In

I'm not taking one step closer, unless you make me move
I'm not asking if you're happy
I already know

Love is all ready
Singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere

Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here

I came in through the door was open
I can't believe I'm here
Could take a picture of you sleeping
Or take you with me

Love is all ready
Singing back
Whether you're ready
I will take you somewhere

Wherever you are
I'm waiting, waiting for you here
No one has to know
That I'm always waiting for you here

Waiting for you here
