Joni Mitchell, Man To Man

No demands
Just pleasurable sensations
Hand in hand
No far reaching plans
No, no-hand in hand
Well I keep on trying to understand
Daylight bright
How come I keep moving
From man to man to man?
Giving my sweet loveTasting sweet loveWoman to man

Sometimes it's easy
You drift with the empty gladness
Like it all belongs
Sometimes it's low down sadness
Like it's all gone so wrong
When I saw you standing there
I said to myself
M-m-m here's a place
I could break down and care
I'll give him my sweet loveTaste his sweet loveReal sweet loveWoman to man

I don't like to lie But I sure can be phony when I get scared I put my nose up in the air Stoney, stoney when I get scared When I saw you standing there I was scared I thought Oh-I hope he can care-I sure hope I can care-I hope we can really care-And share woman to man Cause I've been moving Man to man to man to man Oh what am I looking for? Man to man to man A lot of good guys gone through my door Man to man to man to man To man to man to man Man to man to man to man Woman to man
