

Jonny Lang, Hide Your Love

Try every single day
I know you're worth the wait
Am I getting closer or further away
Somewhere behind your eyes
I know my answer lies
But you won't release it
I wish you would try
To open up and let me see inside

Down deep in your heart I want to be
Down where you hide your love for me
Cause I've got to go, I've got to be
Let me inside down where you hide your love for me

ROund and round we go, circles all I know
Deeper and deeper, endless and slow
Everywhere I turn the same old lesson learned
Over and over I just get burned, so bring me

Down deep in your heart I want to be
Down where you hide your love for me
Cause I've got to go, I've got to be
Let me inside down where
you hide your love for me

No there's nothing you can say
That's ever gonna make me change
I'll always feel this way

Down deep in your heart I want to be
Down where you hide your love for me
Cause I've got to go, I've got to be
Down where you hide your love for me
(Where you hide your love for me)
