

Jont, We are the grapefriut

I am a donut
sitting in starbucks
I don't give a f
cos I am a donut
I am your new string you forgot to bring curled up and waiting for a good tuning and I am an old jar buried twenty feet under the mgm plaza
in Las Vegas, Nevada
I am the grapefruit just trying to break through
I will be forgot, so take me while I'm fresh nothing means a lot, but I got this one sweet thing to give it's driving me crazy, so come on and take me...
It gets a bit lonely just being a can on the highway It's worse being a wetsuit hung up, that nobody's ever used Stylus for a dj, never really get my say like being a rose in a bouquet, bought so someone can get laid...
But I am the egg which has started its journey and is screaming for joy as the sperm comes and hits me I am the baby, peaking out on its first day...
I will be forgot, so take me while I'm fresh,
nothing means a lot but I got this one sweet thing to give it's driving me crazy so come on and take me, come on and take me, why won't you take me?
we will be forgot, so take us while we're fresh, nothing means a lot, but we got this one sweet thing to give -
We are the grapefruit!
We are the grapefruit!
We are the grapefruit!
