

Jordan Pruitt, Permission To Fly

For your information
This is me, I'm on a mission
I don't need no ones Permission to Fly

Permission to fly
Nothing it can measure
Inspiration is forever
I don't need no ones Permission to Fly

All the things
I love, I love, I love
Gone to peices
Here and off of what
Looking for a face that I can trust
To you I got to say enough, enough

All the things you wanted me to be
Not the same as what I want for me
That tainted I was right
You couldn't tell
It's better and now I'm by myself
Myself

For your information
This is me
I'm on a mission
I don't need no ones permission to fly

Permission to fly
Nothing it can measure
Inspiration is forever
I don't need no ones permission to fly

When you look
Inside, inside, inside
You will be suprised at what you find
I'm trying hard to keep an open mind
It's easy when there's nothing left to cry

For your information
This is me
I'm on a mission
I don't need no ones permission to fly

Permission to fly
Nothing it can measure
Inspiration is forever
I don't need no ones permission to fly
Permission to fly

Everything
(Everything)
Holding on and letting go of everything
(Everything)
Stand my ground and lifting off
It's all of me
(All of me)
Reconnecting with the strongest part of me
The heart of me

All the things
I love

For your information
This is me
I'm on a mission
(Oh, Oh)

Permission to fly
(Oh, Whoa)
Inspiration is forever
Permission to fly
