

Josef Hedinger, About Being Alone

Growing up I didn't think
Love was for me
I could see myself being single for eternity
See I thought love was just a game you play
When your vulnerable and wanna give your life away
Now I was so close
Almost
Bout to never let anyone in

And then you came
Like an angel in the sky
Saved me from the pain
Of being lonely for the rest of my life

Baby
You're my dream come true
Tell the world
I'd be lost without you
I'm not ashamed
To admit that you make me whole
And I can't explain

How it feels to not worry no more
About being alone

I don't think you understand
You turned this boy into a man
It's because of you
I feel secure and can see
Kid's in my future with you
Now I was so close
Almost
Bout to never let anyone in

And then you came
Like an angel in the sky
Saved me from the pain
Of being lonely for the rest of my life
Baby
You're my dream come true
Tell the world
I'd be lost without you
I'm not ashamed
To admit that you make me whole
And I can't explain
How it feels to not worry no more
About being alone

I never knew that it could feel so good
To fall so hard baby, to fall so hard
Now they say that once you get a broken heart
Then your scarred
But I'm so far from worrying about us
And then you came
Baby
Tell the world
I'd be lost without you
I'm not ashamed
To admit that you make me whole
And I can't explain

About being alone
