

Joseph Arthur, The Real You

The real you
I knew the real you
I miss you
I have to redeem myself
Forever and forever
You can hear it in my song
You can see it in my eyes
You can master me
You can master me alive
The real you
I knew the real you
I miss you
Been down in my mind
I feel like taking a razor blade
And on my wrist
Write an invitation
I feel like taking a loaded gun
And in my mouth
Blowing up the ocean
Come to where I'm from
Come to where I come from
The real you
I knew the real you
I miss you
