

Joseph Arthur, Voices Will Fight

And where we live
Is where we hide
Cause we can't forgive
What's inside
We have sweet love
We have sweet love
We have sweet love
We have sweet love

In the night
Voices will fight
Voices of shadows
And the runaways
Running from love
And every sorrow left behind

And when we wake up
It's already dark
And i touch your face
To feel your heart
We have sweet love
We have sweet love
We have sweet love
We have sweet love

In the night
Voices will fight
Voices of shadows
And the runaways
Running from love
