

Josh Farro, So much more

I am so much more
Than this dirty whore you see in me
You are just the same
But you never blame yourself for anything
Darling, I told you once before
That I'm a sinner (sinner)
Darling, I told you once before
That I'm a liar, cheater, not a friend
Oh those who live to love
I am so much more
Than this dirty whore you see in me
You are just the same
But you never blame yourself for anything
You are just the same
You are just the same
