

Josh Gracin, Peace Of Mind

There's a hole in my heart
Seems like I've always been tryin' to fill with the treasures in life
The pleasures of the night but nothing ever will There's a restlessness deep in my soul
And I know it's ruining me
All these regrets of mine haunt me all the time
They won't let me sleep

Oh, but sooner or later I'm gonna get some rest
Throw the world off my shoulders
Get this weight off my chest
Oh, I know that it won't be tonight
But I'm going to keep lookin' until I find
A little peace of mind, yeah

I don't know how you knew just what to say just what to do
To leave but still stay
To walk away and keep me hangin' on to you
Oh, can't you see what your love has made of me
My feet keep pacin'
It's you I'm still chasin'
God, I wish I could sleep

Oh, but sooner or later I'm gonna get some rest
Throw the world off my shoulders
Get this weight off my chest
Oh, I know that it won't be tonight
but I'm gonna keep lookin' until I find
A little peace of mind, yeah

Sooner or later I'm gonna get some rest
Throw the world off my shoulders
Get this weight off my chest
Oh I know that it won't be tonight
But I'm gonna keep lookin' until I find
A little peace of mind

Oh yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, a little peace of mind
Yeah, a little peace of mind
A little peace of mind, yeah
