

Josh Kelley, Follow You

everybody tells me i am wrong when i know im not something in me moves me to be strong cuz its all i got
and i don't know what to say when you ask me everyday my mind won't let me play
with the thought of you

so tell me what you need
i'm getting stronger
if you will help me see
it won't be long now
its time for you to leave and i will follow you, will follow you now its you that tells me i am wrong

when i know i'm not
so I hope that you don't listen to this song its all i got

well isn't it great how you rest inside my mind singing songs with broken lines to clear me when I'm blind so baby its fate how my sun won't let me find to believe that I'm alive your picture in my mind

follow you follow you
