Josh Kelley, My Kind

What am I a liar

Wanna play your game

You think I'm crazy

I just wanna complain

You know, you know, you know, you know

You're killin' me

Didn't wanna say it but, you got no shame

You say you can't remember feeling this way

I know

You know

You know

I know

You lied to me

Cause I know

You don't wanna be my kind

I know

You don't wanna be my style

I know

You don't wanna be my kind

And I know

You just don't wanna be my style

What if you were to be yourself for just one day

You run into people you used to see

I know

I know

You know

I know

It's killing you

I'd like to think that you could see one day

I never fall into the game you play

You know, you know, you know, you know

I lied to you

Cause I know

You don't wanna be my kind

I know

You don't want to be my style

I know

You don't wanna be my kind

And I know

That you don't want to be my style

High on smoke

And still you wanna go

To the downtown bar

To get another charge

From a man who pours a poison

For your fate

I'm beggin' you please

Could you try it my way

Could you talk to me

Like it used to be

The scene is pumping oil into your face

Cause I know

You don't wanna be my kind

I know

You don't wanna be my style

I know

You don't wanna be my kind

And I know

That you don't wanna be my style
