

Josh Kelley, My World

Will the world still turn if I have nothing to say?
Will the tears still fall if I can't see you today?
If I could make one wish I wish for you to come stay (Ooo Baby)
Then the world will turn and all the people will say

I can see your worry
You're not the only one
Trust your instincts baby
Life is a model, fill it full of fun

Friends will turn their backs and you don't know where to go
The hours fill your mind with other people you know
I hope you keep my picture underneath your pillow (Ooo Baby)
Or in your pockets deep so I can go where you go

I can see your worry
You're not the only one
Trust your instincts baby
Life is a model, fill it full of fun

I can be the one all around you
I can be the warm that surrounds your heart
If you give me time to be near you
The world will become for the two of us

I can see your worry
You're not the only one
Trust your instincts baby
Life is a model, fill it full of fun

Go fill it full of fun (yeah)

Fill it full of fun

Full of fun
