

Josh Rouse, Cannot Talk

Sit down
Let's just stop for a while
Come down
From where you are for a while
Throw us the camera 'fore she said
Go put it away
It's something eloquent I guess
Viewing it this way

You're not so sure
If it's real or pretending
Magazines and movie stars
Your only friends and you know why
It's something eloquent I guess
The way you move, I'm so impressed
Such style
You know
I'd walk for miles
But you cannot talk
The signs, they still haunt you
All grown up and on your own
You wiggle yourself in
All your life is a chase

You spend this time
Walk around the house
All the problems are lies
You can't figure out
And you know why
Something eloquent I guess
You move, I'm so impressed
Such style
You know it
I'd walk for miles
But you cannot talk
The signs, they still haunt you
All grown up and on your own
You wiggle yourself in
All your life is a chase

You know

All grown up and on your own
You keep to yourself and
All your life
All your life yeah
All your life is a test
