

Josh Rouse, Captain Of Quarantine

(words by Shannon Wright)

I'm rushing a lamppost
Fevers got me comatose
I'm thawing my best jokes
But I sat alone
With the captain of the quarantine
And I sat alone
With the captain of the quarantine

I chewed my way through my boat
I paddled with feathers
I fell snug in a fish snare
My fins, they felt impaired
With the captain of the quarantine
I sat alone
With the captain of the quarantine

I sat alone
With the captain of the quarantine
And I sat alone
With the captain of the quarantine

You boasted about your coins
I seared back your wooden charm
You shelved my affections
I sat alone
With the captain of quarantine
And I sat alone
With the captain of quarantine
Captain of quarantine
Captain of quarantine
Captain of quarantine
Captain of quarantine
Captain of quarantine
