

Josh Rouse, Miracle

Hurry up we're gonna be late, can't wait to see this place and if we leave now, we could be there so
On the drive, you did not care, you're sun-tired and your stomachs bare, when your eyes light up a

Chorus:

It's a miracle, and I'm here to say, it's a miracle, and I'm here to tell you now

Wake up we're almost there, just ten more miles it was such an affair, that in all our lives we've wait

And there it is, it's shining like gold and little different than the one before and who would've thought

Chorus:

It's a miracle, and I'm here to say, it's a miracle, and I'm here to tell you miracles they don't feel this

Bridge:

All of the work is begun, the babies comes one by one, we lie in the mid day sun and say that this i