

Josh Rouse, Princess On The Porch

I searched for you but you were nowhere to be found
A coastal state and all I stood on was frozen ground
And now I found you, it's been three months to the day
Oh and baby it's so good to see you, how I missed your face

The bedroom light was on as you waltzed on through the hall
My hands were shaking, it was like I never knew you at all
You move so slowly, with such eloquence and grace
Oh and baby it's so good to see you, how I missed your face
Oh baby it's so good to see you, how I missed your face

Princess on the porch as I waited for the flood
I gave you all the love I could, I gave you all that I should
And now you tell me you are dying to be free
Oh baby it's so good to see you, why'd you have to leave?
Oh baby it's so good to see you, why'd you have to, to leave?

I walked out to my car, in my pocket that's when I found the key
I turned around to see you staring right back at me
That's when I realized how you are and how it'll never be
Oh baby it's not you I was searching for, it's only me
Oh baby it's not you I was searching for, it's only me
Oh baby it's not you I was searching for, it's only, it's only me

Oh baby it's not you I was searching for, it's only
