

Joshua Bassett, Doppelgänger

I guess I'm not as over you as I thought that I was
I saw someone who looked like you at our favorite coffee shop
And part of me was hoping we would get the chance to talk
I guess I'm not as over you as I thought

I've spent a lot of nights
Memorizing lines
Thinking bout what I might say

And after all this time
I'm still fight or flight
I can't help but run away

I know we're getting older
We're moving on and over
But everywhere I go I see your face

I guess I'm not as over you as I thought that I was
I saw someone who looked like you at our favorite coffee shop
And part of me was hoping we would get the chance to talk
I guess I'm not as over you as I thought
And I thought I was
Yeah I thought I was

She wore your yellow dress
Same as when we met
I couldn't believe my eyes

Even when I left
I was still a wreck
Tryna find the reason why

I'm scared to death to see you
But I wanted it to be you
Worst of all I don't even know why

I guess I'm not as over you as I thought that I was
I saw someone who looked like you at our favorite coffee shop
And part of me was hoping we would get the chance to talk
I guess I'm not as over you as I thought
And I thought I was
And I thought I was

The truth is no one's like you
And a heart cannot be lied to
A lookalike could never take your place

I guess I'm not as over you as I thought that I was
I saw someone who looked like you at our favorite coffee shop
And part of me was hoping we would get the chance to talk
I guess I'm not as over you as I thought

No I guess I'm not as over you as I thought
No I guess I'm not as over you as I thought

And I thought I was
