

Joshua Bassett, SHE SAID HE SAID SHE SAID

She said he said she said
She said he said she said

I saw you in the back of the room
Takin' shots with your friends again
You talk shit like you always do
I guess high school never ends

You sure got a lot to say
When you're talking on my name
You sure got a lot to say
But did you tell them everything?

Oh, and when you dance with the devil
The devil's gonna dance with you
Oh and when you play with fire
The flame's gonna burn you too

Starting rumors
It's nothing new yeah
We're on this shit again
She said he said she said
Just can't get over
I let you go yeah
Let's put this shit to bed
She said he said she said

She said he said she said
She said he said she said
She said he said she said
She said he said she said

Night ends and you call me again
Said you didn't mean what you said
But drunk talks and sober thoughts
So don't act so innocent

I can't keep playing games
When your rules are always changing, so
If you're saying sorry
You can save it

Oh, and when you dance with the devil
The devil's gonna dance with you
Oh and when you play with fire
The flames gonna burn you too

Starting rumors
It's nothing new yeah
We're on this shit again
She said he said she said
Just can't get over
I let you go yeah
Let's put this shit to bed
She said he said she said

She said he said she said
She said he said she said
She said he said she said
She said he said she said

Burn your bridge
Talk your shit
I've been growin' thicker skin

Forgiveness
Ask again
Patience only runs so thin

Starting rumors
It's nothing new yeah
Just can't get over
I let you go yeah
