

Joshua Radin, Don't Look Away

My eye's reflection,
A window's perfection,
Look and you'll see,
The things I can be,

The graves have passed,
The moments don't last,
Like your gods of old days,
That don't see my way,
What I want today:

Don't look away,
If you do, then I may,
No one knows the truth, not even you,
You let your mind show,
A hate that I've known,
I've been there before,
Don't look away anymore,

Your stare is like a spot on the sun,
I'm blind but the only one,
Who knows what to say to you,
I say it today to you,
Your stare's like a wave,
Break away...
From my life in the sand,
A simple plan,
What I want today:

Don't look away,
If you do, then I may,
No one knows the truth, not even you,
You let your mind show,
A hate that I've known,
I've been there before,
Don't look away anymore,

You can't see me now,
All those games you play,
I can't know you now,
I need one more day,
Cause I want to tell you,

Don't look away,
If you do, then I may,
No one knows the truth, not even you,
You let your mind show,
A hate that I've known,
I've been there before,
Don't look away anymore,

Don't look away,
If you do, then I may,
No one knows the truth, not even you,
You let your mind show,
A hate that I've known,
I've been there before,
Don't look away anymore,

Don't look away,
If you do, then I may,
No one knows the truth, not even you,
Not even you,
Not even you,

Not even you,
Not even you.
