

Joshua, The Alligator City Blues

Layin' in the dark and I wanna wake up
I think about my babies so I cannot give up
Layin' in the dark and I wanna wake up
I think about my family tell'em that I love'em so much one day I promise we'll be all together after the rain sun will shine forever

but now I gotta find a place to stay a place to lay when I'm feelin' down (2 X)
I go to this town, in Alligator City

chains on my feet and my face behind bars
I think about the fast life, women and diamonds, friends and fancy cars
chains on my feet and my face behind bars
I wanna take this spaceship just to travel through the stars those precious dreams keep on turnin' in my head and if I didn't have it I would be layin' dead

but now I gotta find a place to stay a place to lay
when I'm feelin' down (2 X)
I go to this town, in Alligator City
