

Joss Stone, Arms Of My Baby

[VERSE]

I've been running around
I gotta slow down and spend time with my man
From city to city
Pleasing the world but neglecting him
Living on the road is so damn tough
Talking on the phone is never enough
I gotta back to the place that I'm used to

[CHORUS]

And I feel like I need to be in the arms of my baby
And I gotta find my way back home
To my baby now

[VERSE]

I've been lacking affection
Craving for the touch of his gentle hands
So much love and devotion
No matter what I go through he understands

He sends me flowers but they don't compare
To how he runs his fingers through my hair
I gotta find my way back home
To my baby now

[BRIDGE]

(BG) Feels like I need my baby now
[Repeat 3x]

Oh I need him
Oh I need him, yes I need him just to tell him that I love him

[CHORUS]

(BG) And I ah ah ah ah Feel like I need to be in the arms of my baby
(BG) And I ah ah ah ah Gotta find my way back home to my baby now

I need him baby
I need my baby
I need him right here
I need him in the morning
I need him at night
I need him twenty-four seven

In the arms of my baby now
