

Joss Stone, Love has made you beautiful

It dont matter how you fix your hair
Cause whatever way is fine
And it dont matter bout the star you at Cause baby I see you shine
Now dont go saying all the things you change
I wouldnt change a thing at all
So turn the mirror back against the wall
Trust me
Love has made you beautiful
Love has made you beautiful
You won't find it in a magazine
Beauty is something thats inside
Dont go looking at the silver spring
Just look at your smile
Love has made you beautiful
Baby its because
When you're in love
It's shining from your heart
Takes you high above beauty has no face
Beauty knows no raise
And all I gotta say is
Love has made you beautiful
Love has made you beautiful
Dont you know that you cant be upsad
Cause someone loves you as you are
And they see no one else in all the world
And they see inside your heart
That love has made you beautiful
Love has made you beautiful
(Beautiful girl)
(Beautiful girl)
