

Joy Electric, Analogue Grand Diary

I know why You came here
I know that its never clear
I saw through Your heart
I'm empty and lost

You don't have to go
You can be my home
I'll always feel alone
You don't have to go

I know next to nothing
To me, You're everything
For all that You see
I'll never like me

You don't have to go
You can be my home
I'll always feel alone
You don't have to go

Here is my world
Here is my heart
For You
