

Joy Electric, Five Stars For Failure

Five stars for failure
Five stars for failure
You'd be nowhere near
If I were to die
You'd be nowhere near

Five stars for failure
Five stars for failure
Say it isn't so
Say you truly cared
'Cause if you ever did
It won't matter now
No, it never did

Five stars for failure
Five stars for failure
If I were to die
Would the world take note?
Would teenagers cry?
Would anybody know?
Would I be in the headlines?
Simply, no
Simply, simply, no
