

Joy Electric, Keep Him In Your Thoughts

You are afraid when I am dark
I seem to be lost in your thoughts
All of confusion steals our heart
Whenever your pistol breaks its blue trigger part
The slider can falter so

Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts

The glitter it comes back to haunt you
The stars are dripping through the moon
The villians will shoot me from behind
They couldn't pretend to be my friends
So they lied
I'm king of neglection

Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts

My heart here lies
Dead and unopened but

Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep him close to heart
Keep Him in your thoughts

Keep Him in your thoughts
Keep Him in your thoughts
