

Joy Electric, Pilgrimage (Lo, I Am With You Always)

The scepter song harkens dominion
To sew the champion
The mantle of the sword bearer
Becomes the hummers harp of elation
Foes from the northern nook
And spirits from the fall
Behold the ancient emperor
His arms outstretched to all

Lo, I Am With You Always
Lo, I Am With You Always

Knighthood sworn upon the anther lawns
Summon the prophets
Woodland whimsy broods and buds
Lands in flight the form of the fortress
And with a sudden wisp
The maiden keys unlock
The writing of the book
Of revelations born
Fables are notions
