

Joy Electric, Shepherds Of The Northern Pasture

On white reeds blessed wheat arrives
Horns of oil for swiss born brides

Hear the shepherds of the northern pasture sing
Hear the shepherds of the northern pasture sing
We are lost again
Is there one more light in here?

Formed of treaties honed by verse
North of greenland, the icebergs

Hear the shepherds of the northern pasture sing
Hear the shepherds of the northern pasture sing
We are lost again
Is there one more light in here?

I'm a feeble bear but you're a kingly mare
All of these happenings will give us words to sing
It's cruel you say unfair
Not for one hungry bear
My only offering are ginger cakes and cream
I'm a feeble bear
Horseless bound braille mound emblems
With invitations to the lawn
