

Joy Electric, Sing Once For Me

Reeling indefinitely with our woes
Weakened by thoughts of youth where time goes
I wane through wilted plains
I just don't know

Sing once for me
Before days pass and years go by
Sing once for me
Sing once for me

A page written by hands of young age for your sake
A gift called "just your presence" for my sake
To not be worn and weathered

Sing once for me
Before days pass and years go by
Sing once for me
Sing once for me

Carry these certainties made weary
Make these your surities for safety
Place these in treasuries for keeping

Sing once for me
Before days pass and years go by
Sing once for me
Sing once for me

Will there be days to count our memories?
Our memories
Oh, sing
Just sing
Just sing for me....
