

Joy Electric, The Voice Of The Young

Here we, here we come
We are the voice of the young
Yeah, here we come
We are the faithful ones

I know we are younger, but we're getting closer to be all that we hope to become
You say there's no room for my thoughts or my ideas
I say how could you be more wrong! Come on!

Here we, here we come
We are the voice of the young
Yeah, here we come
We are the faithful ones

I'm not going to be the one who patronizes
Then say that you really don't belong
We all have a purpose and a reason given to give up our lives for the Lord!
Come on!

Here we, here we come
We are the voice of the young
Yeah, here we come
We are the faithful ones

You're never gonna tear us apart
You're never gonna throw us aside
You're never gonna undo our hearts
We'll stand up for the truth every time
