

Jrilla, somebody I used to drill

Back then it was the sex and drugs
Right now I don't need any of that fucking stuff
Right now I need more than love
Right now I think I need somebody that I trust

I'm in love with your body in love with you baby
Girl you drive me crazy
Don't wanna dead this spark too quick
But I'm a bad guy when I get too lit
If I see a bad B of course ima go try fuck that bitch
But trust me baby it don't mean nothing
A quick fling never really turn into something
I wanna be yours do you wanna be mine
I could take you out of that nine to five
Hop on a plane go on a flight
OT jock for the night got Brodie back when he slide
And the galdem love when I ride
Yeah the galdem love when I pipe
Baby I just want to see you shine If that's okay
Were never gonna trip for a gal that's fake
Bussdown babe love to watch that big back just shake
Rewind that
Do you ever look back on the days I would call you baby
But were strangers now and that's crazy
I don't wanna see that gal in my ends
She said were better off as just friends
Why
I start to lose focus shit gets toxic
Now I'm breaking down
Give me a minute ill be breaking bad
Relapse on some shit from the past
Don't ask and just please don't question
Why am I stuck in this section
I said I want more in life but that gal was chill with a pension
I don't need your love I don't want more friends
Most of the gal that I text are tens
Cut me off and get left on read
That gal can't trust me only wants to fuck me
Thats okay told her bring some friends
That's okay told her bring some friends
Thats okay told her bring some friends

Back then it was the sex and drugs
Right now I don't need any of that fucking stuff
Right now I need more than love
