

Juan Wells, Summer Rain

So let me tell you the story of my life i promise that it won't take very long it's not a hero but a boy running wild a boy they used to call the golden child i had no direction i was just running with the wind never know what the day might bring i had no connexion till you came into my world and gave meaning to everything chorus:

i used to run i used to hide i used to cry all night i used to walk the streets alone nowhere on my own but when i looked into you eyes the sun began to shine you put me back upon my feet again now i kiss the summer rain the rain came falling down like it was never gonna end right in the middle of july you smiled upon my heart made me a happy man even felth i was that golden child
