

Jubilee, Rebel Hiss

It's that funny little feeling
I haven't shook off yet
Don't wanna try
Don't wanna die
Don't know what to do instead
'Cause it's much more entertaining
To just watch the puppet show
Where they force your hand
To make you a man
Then say "don't be a hero";
Forgot for what I'm searching
The devil may not care
I've been everywhere
And it ain't out there
But I can hear the rebel hiss
And it says...

(Chorus:)

We don't owe
What you said
It don't show
What we know
Choose your side
Don't forget
We outgrow
Overthrow

Every waking moment
Spent plotting out the way
Count back the years
Dry off the tears
Your life has slipped away
So be careful what you wish for
'Cause it just might come true
You've got a taste
Now you have to face
Just what's become of you
Now say...

(Chorus)

Who said, who said, who said
They Know?
Know? No.

(Chorus x2)
