

Judas Priest, As God is my Witness

Judas Priest prezentuje utwór "As God is my Witness" z płyty Invincible Shield" (premiera 8 marca

Trapped inside this ball of confusion
Thoughts of death lead me astray
Prying eyes reveal a lost illusion
I shall resist when evil comes my way

When minds collide
War of the worlds
Speaking in tongues
Of the unholy

As god is my witness
I swear there'll be hell to pay
As god is my witness
I will prevail until the end of days

Defiance makes me climb the highest mountain
To freely breath the air that I demand
If I can crush the nightmares of oblivion
The tide will turn and bring me back to land

Man's destiny invokes heresy
Speaking in tongues that spit out fire

As god is my witness
I swear there'll be hell to pay
As god is my witness
I will prevail until the end of days

Zadkiel's unholy war begins
They crawl to Jacob's ladder
No forgiveness for their sins

Man's destiny invokes heresy
Speaking in tongues that spit out fire

When minds collide war for the worlds
Speaking in tongues of the unholy

As god is my witness
I swear there'll be hell to pay
As god is my witness
I will prevail until the end of days
