

Judas Priest, Crossfire

Watch your own reflection
Read between the lines
Lost in this confusion
It's a sign of times

Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go
Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go

Opium for the masses
World's gone deaf and dumb
Victims of insanity
Ruled by the gun

Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go
Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go

Too much information
Messes with your mind
Pushing back the enemy
Blind leads the blind

World of smoking mirrors
Leaves you in a daze
Find your own solution
Out of the maze

Swearing on the bible
Hypocrites and fools
Losing your religion
Breaking all the rules

Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go
Caught in a crossfire
You gotta let go
