

Jude Cole, More Than A Break Up Song

This conversation is a trance
And years fly by at a glance
The blame game is the clue
That everyone I ever loved is you

(CHORUS)

And you've done nothing wrong
And this is more than a break up song

It's simple as honesty
And honest as the hole in me
Eyes that see for someone else
May never have to see themselves

(CHORUS)

And you've done nothing wrong
And this is more than a break up song

And you've done nothing wrong...

How could I tell you
The weight's that's been lifted?
I open my heart
And no man goes drifting off...

Chemistry and gravity
Are spinning in apology
This is what I've turned into
For everyone I've ever loved is you

(CHORUS)

And you've done nothing wrong
And this is more...this is more...this is more than a break up song
