

Jude Cole, Time For Letting Go

ive been holding back words and waiting for time theres a lesson here somewhere i know its mine and though ill remember the promise we made promises dont justify feeling this way, any more its time for letting go we cant hide what we both know but ooooh , ooooh the hurt grows everytime i think its over youve been keepin all your secrets inside i know the truth now baby, you dont have to hide but my mind wanders , to the very first day what a shame things had to turn out this way

we cant hide what we both know but ooooh , ooh the hurt grows , everytime i think its over no words, could bring back your affection and no lies, could keep me holdin on holdin on and holdin on now i know that its time for letting go

we cant hide what we both know but ooh , ooh the hurt grows
its time to realize that were both just living lies and way down deep inside the time is telling me its time for letting go

let it go
i keep tellin myself over and over
let it go .....

but my loves still strong but i just cant keep holding on and holdin on and holdin on
