

Jude Harrison, Don't you dare

Dark cloud moving in
Just one following would wash away
Wash away the pain
Just on ray of sun
To warm my skin
Rid me of the cold youre drowning in
I could say that I don't care
But the truth is I'd follow you anywhere
I've been waiting for such a long, long time
Don't you dare change
Your mind
Seems so close to me
But still beyond my reach
Calling me and playing hide and seek
Look behind that door
Im the one youre been searching for
And Im not a little girl anymore
I could say that I don't care
But the truth is I'd follow you anywhere
I've been waiting for such a long, long time
Don't you dare change your mind
Don't wander round looking for someone to replace me
Don't wander round wasting the rest of your life
Don't wander round waiting for someone else to save you
And don't you make the same mistake twice
I could say that I don't care
But the truth is I'd follow you anywhere
I've been waiting for such a long, long time
Don't you dare change
Your mind
I could say that I don't care
But the truth is I'd follow you
I've been waiting for such a long, long time
Don't you dare change
Your mind, mmm
Dont change your mind
Dont change your mind
