

Jude Harrison, I don't know if I should stay

Where's my will?
Can I find a way?
The earth is wild
And I cant sit still
A familiar sound
A familiar voice
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I dont know if I should stay
A thousand stars
You will have my world
Arent bright enough
To fill these cracks
A familiar place
A familiar voice
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I dont know if I should stay
I ran to you like water
I threw my body in
And I'll stand upon the ocean
Just to show you that I am strong, strong
But what if I am wrong?
A familiar look
A familiar smile
Makes it so hard
To make a choice
I dont know if I should stay, mhm
Away
