Jude Harrison, I don't know if I should stay

Where's my will? Can I find a way? The earth is wild And I cant sit still A familiar sound A familiar voice Makes it so hard To make a choice I dont know if I should stay A thousand stars You will have my world Arent bright enough To fill these cracks A familiar place A familiar voice Makes it so hard To make a choice I dont know if I should stay I ran to you like water I threw my body in And I'll stand upon the ocean Just to show you that I am strong, strong But what if I am wrong? A familiar look A familiar smile Makes it so hard To make a choice I dont know if I should stay, mhm Away
