

Jude Harrison, My sweet time

Late at night hear the song spinning on my head
Heaven knows I cant sleep it off
Im thinking 'bout all my stuff missing my own bed
And all my friends but its too late to call
Hanging out all day at the Holiday Inn
Waitings such a drag until the band kicks in
I don't know where the next road goes
But I feel the wheels roll down below me
Take my sweet time
Getting in back again
What matters most will carry me
Through the night to where I wanna be babe
Take my sweet time
But I'll be home again
In my own sweet time
Calling out every night and it feels so good
How it works is a mystery
But I believe in my heart Im doing what I should
With all these lost souls following
Waiting all day until lets begin
I love how it feels when the band kicks in
I don't know where the next road goes
But I feel the wheels roll down below me
Take my sweet time
Getting in back again
What matters most will carry me
Through the night to where I wanna be babe
Take my sweet time
But I'll be home again
In my own sweet time yeah
Maybe when this is over I'll understand
What I've got right here in my hands yeah
Maybe, oh yeah
I don't know where the next road goes
But I feel the wheels roll down below me
Take my sweet time
Im getting in back again
What matters most will carry me
Thought the night to where I wanna be babe
Take my sweet time
I'll be home again
In my own sweet time yeah yeah
In my own sweet time yeah yeah
In my own sweet time yeah
