

Jude Harrison, Worth waiting for

If every day was glowing like a
Perfect day in summer
You'd never know rain
If it was always the same
We need a bitter taste of falling
How to feel it back
To know when it's right
To walk in the light
Sometimes you pull me back
Back from the edge
I, I rescue you back from the dead
We got lost along the way
But we got here in the end
I know
It was waiting for
It was waiting for
Even with my friends I felt like
I was just pretending
To know what I was
And turn it into a song
Somehow we're still standing after
All our shattered plans
That faded away
Now there's only today
Sometimes you pull me back
Back from the edge
I, I rescue you back from the dead
We got lost along the way
But we got here in the end
I know
It was waiting for
It was waiting for
Everything's just another
Start step out on the way
And everything I take you too far
Bring me back again
Sometimes you pull me back
Back from the edge
I, I rescue you back from the dead
We got lost along the way
But we got here in the end
I know
It was waiting for
It was waiting for
It was waiting for
It was waiting for
